

Name:	Bore Womara
Date of interview:	Monday, 7 July 2014
Location of interview:	Depo-Karakadabu, Central Province
Chief interviewer:	Didymus Gerald
Time interview concluded:	12:48 PM
Duration of interview:	15:40:41
Main language of interview:	Motu & English
Image:

TRANSCRIPT OF INTERVIEW

Bore Womara

Father: Womara Wabuta

Village: Eveidigi , there was shortage of man power. There were so many wounded soldiers...

1960-62 I was born.

My father was a sorcery man... we called him as sanguma.

He was based at the military hospital. He used herbs and magic words from Koiari to heal them.

Custom doctor, his job was to go to military barracks, hospital and see if any soldiers were not healed quickly, he will treat them using traditional medicine. He helped the soldiers, and treated the wounded and sick.

His job is to go to the barracks hospital, treat wounded and sick, used herbs: bullet , fresh ones he used to treat them.

He used to work from here to loribaiwa.

Was the hospital short of supply? Yes. I still have those herbs with me.

la be ia gari lass, he can go into the enemy camp without fear ... as an invisible man, through traditional practices...

Taunimanima momo herea idia saved.

Lived in the cave... they never lit candle.