Appendix A6. Questionnaire

Survey 500 people in each of three states as

Vic, Qld and SA

AUWBI - Survey 20.1

To be conducted in the event of economic crisis including a major stock market crash, recession, series of interest rate rises and houses foreclosing

"Hello, my name is I'm calling on behalf of the Australian Unity Wellbeing Index and Deakin University. We are doing a survey on how people feel about life in Australia that will only take about 7 minutes to complete."

"To help with our selection process can I speak to the female/male who had the most recent birthday, and is at least 18 years old?"

Instructions: If the person who answers is that person, then continue. If the person is available repeat opening paragraph. If the person is not available, ask when they will be available and organise a call back time.

"The Australian Unity Wellbeing Index involves asking you questions about how satisfied you are with different aspects of your life, and more generally, life in Australia. Would you like to share your views by being involved in the survey?"

"I'd like to inform you that you do not have to answer any question you do not feel comfortable in answering and you're welcome to withdraw from this survey at any time. If you do withdraw, your answers will not be included in the analysed results."

I assure you that your personal details will be stored separately from your answers to the questions.

The information you provide will be used to publish an overall survey result. At the end of the questions I will give you contact details of some people you may wish to contact regarding this project."

"Do you have any questions about these procedures?"

"Thank you. Now I will ask some questions about your self."

"I am going to ask how satisfied you feel, on a scale of Zero - 10."

"Zero means you feel completely dissatisfied. 10 means you feel completely satisfied. And the middle of the scale is 5, which means you feel neither satisfied nor dissatisfied."

"Would you like me to go over this again for you?"

"In that case I will start by asking how satisfied you are with life. So,-----"
