RECENT ADDITIONS TO THE RANGE OF DESIGNS IN WUNDERLICH CEILINGS

This publication is supplementary to Catalogue M.81 (dated May, 1933) entitled "Wunderlich Ceilings and other Ornamental Metal Linings." When making a choice of ceilings, consideration should be given to both publications.

The new Wunderlich Patterns meet the present-day demand for simplicity in design. They combine flat surfaces and well-defined angles, with crisp, modelled relief, and are appropriate for awning, shop or office ceilings, as well as for modern apartments or homes. Like all Wunderlich Ceilings, they are easy to fix, will never discolor or fall, and are fire retardant.

Note—The advent of these new patterns has resulted in the following designs, illustrated in Catalogue M 81 being discarded:—

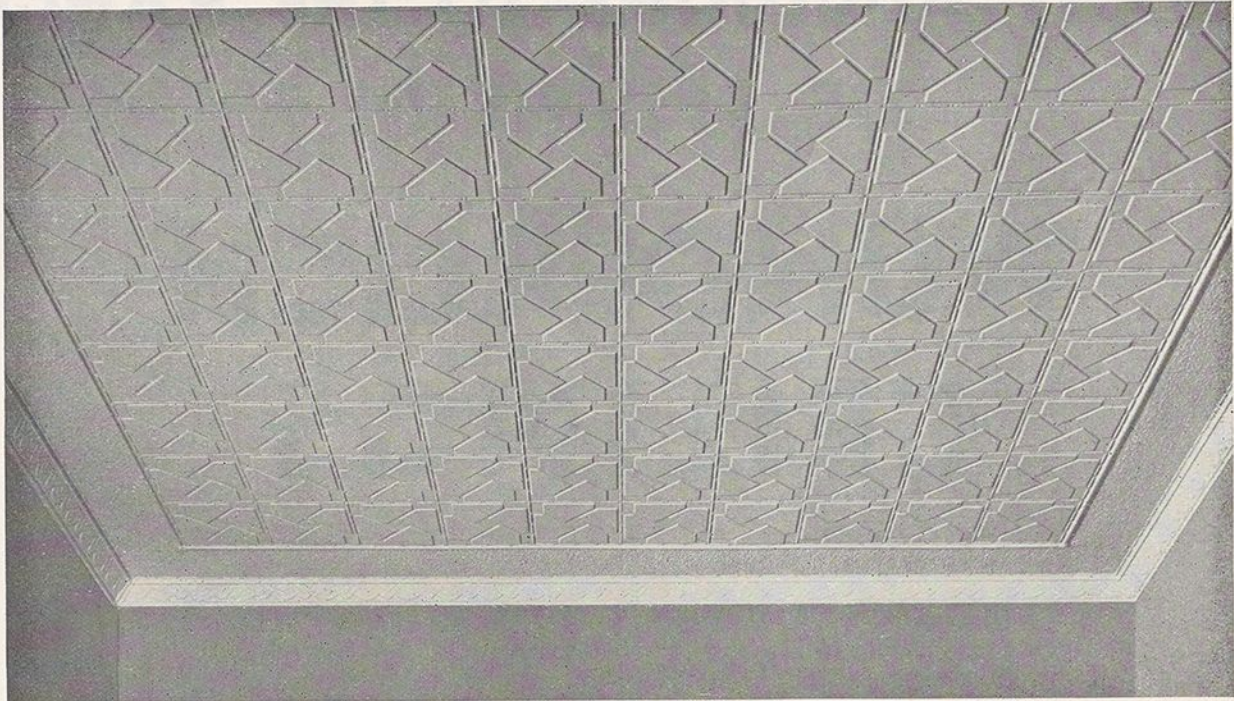

Lower Ceilings on pages	-	-	-	12, 14, 15, 21 and 32
Upper	-	-	-	15 and 16
Cornices Nos. 1103, 1131 and 1564 on page	-	-	-	31
